Good morning everyone! My name's Sophia Giannone from class 831 and I'm here to speak to you all on today's Words of Wisdom Wednesday on behalf of the SEAL team.

Have you ever heard the quote, "Better three hours too soon than a minute too late?" The famous quote said by William Shakespeare claims that instead of spending time waiting for an opportunity to come to you, you should take action instead.

Wasting time is definitely one thing I hate the most. The feeling of having wasted time makes me wish I had the power to go back and relive the moment. But, I can't, and that's why we shouldn't take time for granted.

Every moment that passes becomes a part of our past. Recognizing this truth should inspire us to cherish each second and make the most of it. So, don't wait for tomorrow to live, laugh, and love. Embrace every moment to the fullest and enjoy every second.

Thank you all for listening, have a Watch the Time Wednesday 😊
